Results in Physics is an open access journal offering authors the opportunity to publish in all fundamental and interdisciplinary areas of physics, materials science, and applied physics. Papers of a theoretical, computational, and experimental nature are all welcome. Results in Physics accepts papers that are scientifically sound, technically correct and provide valuable new knowledge to the ...

Dental Implants- Classification, Success and Failure Overview

The aim of this journal is to provide ideas and information involving the use of the finite element method and its variants, both in scientific inquiry and in professional practice. The scope is intentionally broad, encompassing use of the finite element method in engineering as well as the pure and applied sciences. The emphasis of the journal will be the development and use of numerical ...

A spinal cord injury (SCI) is damage to the spinal cord that causes temporary or permanent changes in its function. Symptoms may include loss of muscle function, sensation, or autonomic function in the parts of the body served by the spinal cord below the level of the injury. Injury can occur at any level of the spinal cord and can be complete injury, with a total loss of sensation and muscle ...

Complex regional pain syndrome (CRPS), also known as reflex sympathetic dystrophy (RSD), (and also sometimes referred to as the "suicide disease", due to the intensity of the discomfort experienced, and the lack of a cure or effective treatments) is a disorder of a portion of the body, usually starting in a limb, which manifests as extreme pain, swelling, limited range of motion, and changes ...

Here is a course in boundary element methods for the absolute beginners. It assumes some prior basic knowledge of vector calculus (covering topics such as line, surface and volume integrals and the various integral theorems), ordinary and partial differential equations, complex variables, and computer programming.

Tape casting is a standard shaping technique used to produce flat ceramic sheets with a thickness range varying between 10 $\hat{1}$ /₄mm to 1 mm .The process was originally developed by Glenn Howatt during 1940s to manufacture capacitor dielectrics, which remains one of the most important applications of tape casting .The general fabrication process of ceramic thin materials by tape casting can be ...
